Rt. 50 - Washington Street Project: The Next Two Weeks:

Waterline contractors will be working for the remainder of the week finishing sections of pipe at intersections.

Brick crews will be digging up the section of Route 50 west bound between the Plains Road to Pendleton.

Conduit contractor will be installing bases for light poles.

Conduit and brick crews will remain under same schedule thru next two weeks.

Thank you to all for your patience during the construction.

Pedestrians - please cross streets at crosswalks only - do not walk in the active work zones.

Those of you who are using Federal Street, Stonewall Avenue and Marshall Streets, Chestnut, Locust, Walnut and or Reed Streets to avoid the traffic lights - please be aware of pedestrians, children riding bicycles, pets, people walking dogs, and obey the speed limits, even go a little slower. Also remember - come to a full stop at all stop signs.

PLEASE NOTE: A new stop sign will be installed on the corner of N. Madison Street & E Marshall Street the first of the week - May 25/26th. There will be 4 stop signs at that intersection. Please take time to note the new sign. Thank you!

Magalen Bryant and Second Chapter Books would like to invite you to meet the Author, Eliza McGraw, as she introduces her new release:

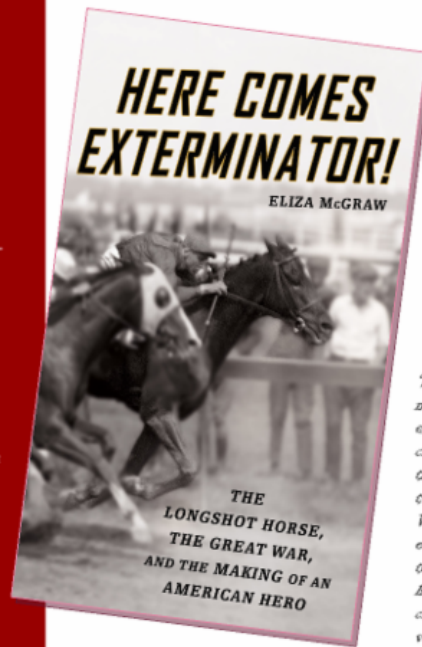

Here Comes Exterminator! The Longshot Horse, The Great War, and the Making of an American Hero

April 27 at 6:00
At Locust Hill Farm
2247 Locust Hill Lane

Books will be available for purchase and can be autographed by the author.

Refreshments will be served

Please RSVP
by calling or emailing the bookstore at 687-7016 or secondchapterbks@gmail.com

"Exterminator's success challenged the notion that American horses would never live up to Europe's meticulously charred bloodlines and made him a patriot hero of the country. Caught between his hotheaded millionaire owner, Willis Sharpe Kilmer, and his knowledgeable trainer, Henry McDaniel, Exterminator captured fans' affection with his personality, consistency, and athleticism. He ran in 99 races, was twice voted Horse of the Year, and holds records that still stand today."
